

Don't Sacrifice Economy for Neatness

Nowadays the price of clothes isn't so important as care in buying them.

There are lot of men who make a better showing because their money "goes farther".

For example, the man who wears Clothcraft Clothes. He pays from $10 to $25 for a suit that gives him everything to be desired in looks and service.

If you want quality as well as moderate prices, look over our stock of men's furnishings and go home with a new idea of how to dress.

E. B. THOMPSON.

TO THE REPUBLICAN VOTERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

In the last issue of the Signal I noticed another pretty picture of my Opponent and almost a page of explanation. I have read the article several times trying to ascertain which he intended it for, an amended petition or the second chapter of a continued story, but I must confess that I have been unable to properly classify it. Even now it dawns upon me that it may be a highly classic form of "Blank verse".

He says that I did not answer the questions asked in his first letter. Solomon, the wise man, said, "Answer not a fool according to his own folly, lest thou also be like unto him."

He seems to desire to make this a "Wet and dry" fight. Ed do you know there is a law against the sale of whiskey in this county. Do you know that there is a law against having liquor in one's possession for the purpose of sale? Do you know that there is a law providing that Rail Road and express books shall be prime facie evidence against one so charged? You said that the "Boot Leggers" are fighting you. Evidently you know who they are. You also say that they have ordered Six thousand gallons, right under your nose, during the last year of your "Strict but fair and impartial enforcement of the law". My God! What an admission from one who is supposed to represent the law and is clothed with its power and sanctity. You should be ashamed to tell it. Much less post it in public places. If your statements and figures are true, you stand convicted before God and man for your inability or insincerity. When you took the oath of office, you raised your hand to God and affirmed to him before men that you would do your utmost to protect this county against this Monster Dragon, but your figures show and the people know that from the very day your term of office began, that he has been scott free, and every day you see men under his magic spell, stumbling on every road and street, while the whole County writhes in his clutch, and his hard tail flails poor bewildered, mangled, mauling children, while death and his carion horde feeds fat on your three and one half years of "Strict but fair impartial enforcement of the law". Every drop of that six thousand gallons sold is an indictment against your feebleness or laziness.

You made the inference that I am responsible for the law allowing liquor to be shipped into this county. I will answer that by saying not one word of it is true and you know it; and you made it with a full knowledge of its falsity.

You seem to be very much concerned about me being eligible (No one else seems to mention it.) According to your figures, you say I am short one day. Granting all that to be true, (which it is not), I ask you, are you coward, base enough to take advantage of it? Would you have the gall to try to force your self upon the voters in such a weak and cowardly manner? Are you afraid to stand on your record of "Strict but fair and impartial enforcement of the law"? Are you afraid to fight? Are you devoid of manhood? If you are, and if I were in your place, I would take down that big flag on My front porch, which represents patriotism and manhood and swear that I was a sneaking coward and that manhood had never found a lodging place in my little simple minded gizzard.

You say that I did not attack your personal nor official record. I am not going to attack your personal record. So far as I know you are a good little boy. In fact, so good, you are good for nothing. All you lack is being a typical "Mamma's little boy" is a few bewitching little curls around your dainty little ears and some ruffles on your shirt. As for your official record; I have been telling the voters that you have none. But maybe, I am wrong, for surely, as rich as you are in mental endowments and as prodigal as your labors have been, you may have made lavish contributions to the official welfare of the County. But you know that most of we people of the County have some what modest intellectual attainments and are not highly specialized perhaps, in your exalted and mysterious method of state craft. So for our special benefit I ask you to throw an illuminating flare upon the actual situation. And to that end, I challenge you to name the times and places in the County where you will go on the stump and tell us all what your record is, then if it is not "Puncture proof" I will take a malicious delight in murdering it. I believe the people would enjoy that better than this newspaper stuff.

Yours heartily,

E. B. THOMPSON.

LIVINGSTON

Dr. R. G. Webb has purchased 40 lots on the Livingston heights and 2 dwellings from J. W. Sams of Louisville. The dwellings will be put in first class condition for renting.—Mr. James Maret of Boone-Way fame, was here last Tuesday on his way from Mt. Vernon to Winchester where he has a position in the good roads

TO THE REPUBLICANS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY:

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the office of County Attorney of this county, subject to the action of the Republican primary election to be held on August 4, 1917.

In so doing I feel that I am qualified to perform the duties of the office from my past experience as an official and as a practitioner of the law.

If nominated and elected I shall strive to the end that every penal law that is written on our Statute books is vigorously enforced. especially the gambling and liquor laws. I believe in strict economy in the handling of public moneys, in a speedy liquidation of the County's indebtedness, and in the maintenance, improvement and betterment of our public highways in a businesslike manner, especially our dirt roads.

Your support will be appreciated.

Very sincerely,

movement. He was with us several hours and we enjoyed his presence very much and we talked over all the past duels that we had fought with the pen and we would not be surprised at any time for him to bring up hostilities again. But if he will let us alone we will be quiet, but if he starts something then look out something is going to drop.

William Brady was in Livingston Tuesday.—W. A. Warren, who has been concreting the Dudley tunnel, has completed the job and moved his cars on the L. & E. division of the L. & N.—Robert Griffin, who has been in Covington for the past week, has returned home.—S. C. Franklin, L. & N. watch inspector was here Monday between trains enroute home from Lexington to Mt. Vernon, where he had been to visit his mother who has been quite sick. He reports her much improved. Mrs. I. A. Mann, of Maysville has been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walton for a few days.—Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Albright of Mt. Vernon, Editor Signal, stopped here on his way from London to Mt. Vernon. They came by way of Parkers creek and then over Gauley. If you want to get a fight on your hands ask the Editor how he likes to motor over the Gauley route.—Mrs. Ed Quinn, of Paris, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Hayse.—Miss Bulah Quinn, of Paris, is visiting Miss Juliette Griffin.—J. N. Griffin candidate for Judge, was here Saturday and informed us that the outlook for his nomination was promising and he seemed well pleased with the outlook.

Mrs. J. W. Higgins visited relatives near Mt. Vernon Monday.—Miss Risse Oliver, of Winchester, visited Miss Maria Rambo Tuesday and Wednesday.—Mrs. D. B. Rambo and children were in Louisville Wednesday and Thursday.—Mrs. J. H. Browning has returned from Wildie where she has been visiting relatives.—Mrs. O. W. Turpin, of Brodhead came down from Richmond Thursday and stopped off with Mrs. W. M. Owens for a few days.—Misses Ida, Bessie and Myrtle Hamlin, of Mt. Vernon, have been visiting relatives here for the past few days.—Miss Dora Mullins, of Mullins, visited relatives here Tuesday.—It seems that our friend, the Brodhead correspondent, is between the deep blue sea and the middle of a bad fix and is trying hard to get himself together and make a superhuman effort to deliver a broadside shot at us but his thoughts and pen will not work in unison now. My friend, we always sympathize with a man that wishes to do and cant.—But you have read in the "good book" where a man was chosen to preach and had a certain man as his spokesman. Perhaps you could prevail on some one in Brodhead to come to your rescue but we will give you a little advice in the out set you know the bible warns us all of how we entertain strangers. Some, by so doing, have made the mistake of their lives. Did this ever occur to you, my friend? He claims that some med have a good memory mixed with a heap of self possessed nerve. We believe he is right, for several years ago we visited the beautiful little town of Brodhead and on our return home we came up a small creek, and following this to its source, we passed through some beautiful and some rough country, and since we have learned that this creek is known as Negro creek, and upon its beautiful banks our friend, Johnathan, first saw the light. Oh, what a great thing is memory! So our friend can remember hearing the wind playing lovely tunes in the tops of the pines and hearing loud and shrill voices of the wild cats echoing from one mountain to another. So our friend must have the nerve to have stood all of this. But since he has taken up his abode in the good little town of Brodhead, and trying to cross swords with the writer, we will say, nerve is a great thing.—Near the Masonic brick stands a pole near 70 feet high, and from the top of this pole hangs the stars and stripes 8 by 16 feet proudly floating in the breeze, and when we look upon this emblem of our country we think of what it cost our forefathers to establish and to hand this beautiful emblem down to us. But to day not only does this flag float to the breeze in our own dear country but it has crossed the waters and can be seen on the battlefield of France. May God bless this flag where ever it may float, for we know it means freedom, liberty and protection.

BRODHEAD

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Pike, of Frederick, Oklahoma, are spending several weeks with his brother, the Rev. A. J. Pike, here. Mr. and Mrs. Pike made the trip from their home to Louisville in an automobile with a party of friends, and had many trying experiences on account of rain and mud roads, was on the road about ten days. Mr. Pike is said to be quite wealthy and like the other boys is a fine looking man.—Mrs. H. E. Bailey, of Elgin, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Gofer Lawrence.—Edd Jones is at home from the West.—Prof. John Scott, of Bromo, will teach the school here this fall.—Mr. John McMullins continues very sick and his recovery is doubtful.

CHOLERA MORBUS.

This is a very painful dangerous disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Eneyart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."
